

W.E.L.L.

Women Empowered and Loving Life

Clothesline Project 2011

In MA during 1990, some women got together and decided to show the truth. They painted t-shirts and hung them out on a clothesline for all to see. In April, W.E.L.L. is doing it again. Come support those who've survived sexual violence, and pay respect to those who died because of such violence.

When: April 30th from 10am-5pm

Where: City Park, between Anseman and City Park Ave

Cost: FREE!

You do not have to be a survivor to participate! We are all touched by sexual violence. If you've ever advised a female friend not to go out alone at night, you're responding to the ever-present threat of sexual violence. Let's not be threatened anymore. Let's speak up.

Come design your shirt with us! Bring a shirt and supplies, although some will be there to share if you cannot bring your own:

March 29th, 7-9pm at Fairgrinds
3133 PonceDeLeon, NOLA

April 2nd, Noon-2pm at Fairgrinds 3133
PonceDeLeon

For more dates, email
brit@britwhit.com

WOMEN EMPOWERED AND LOVING LIFE